CHEONG FATT TZE
THE BLUE MANSION

17th March 2020

Founder's Message & Appeal: Movement Control Order in Malaysia 18th March – 14th April 2020

Dear Friends of Cheong Fatt Tze-The Blue Mansion,

On Monday, 16th March in effort to mitigate the spread of Covid-19, the Malaysian government announced a restriction in movement, barring its citizens from leaving the country and also limiting travellers from entering country. These restrictions are in effect till April 14th, 2020.

The COVID-19 pandemic has caused unprecedented decline around the world, with tourism and hospitality being one of the hardest hit industries.

At Cheong Fatt Tze - The Blue Mansion we are solely dependent on mansion tours, hotel bookings and social events, so these times are particularly trying. Still, we have been trying our very best to keep our heads up, working on the continued restoration of this century-old property, planning our 'Indigo at Home' delivery services and looking towards maintaining our standing as one of the top icons of the UNESCO Heritage Site of George Town.

As we wade through these uncharted waters, we have also made it our utmost priority to keep our team in employment, so that their livelihoods are maintained as best we can. Some, such as steadfast Mony, have been with us since our earliest days, and it is our duty to them to support them in these times.

So we would like to make an appeal to you, as friends of The Blue Mansion. If you have a booking to stay with us, we would like to request that you do not cancel, but postpone instead, as far ahead as 12 months for ensured security.

If you do not have a room booking, please consider purchasing a signature Cheong Fatt Tze - The Blue Mansion package.

Another way to help is by buying tour tickets for future use, these are valid up to 18 months.

Alternatively, book a dining experience at Indigo for use in the future, a night out to look forward to in better times.

CHEONG FATT TZE

THE BLUE MANSION

The Blue Mansion has existed for over 130 years, and it, along with all its caretakers will weather the storm and come out better and stronger, but every little bit counts, and we hope that you will stand alongside us.

Until you are safely able to visit us next, stay home, stay healthy and stay sane.

Warmest regards,

Ar. Laurence Loh & Loh-Lim Lin Lee
